Cosmo Oil Marketing Adds New Product to Cosmo Zero Carbon Solution Lineup ~Launches "Zero Carbon HVAC Control System: Cosmo AC Pro"~

Cosmo Oil Marketing Co., Ltd. (hereafter, "the Company"), a subsidiary of Cosmo Energy Holdings Co., Ltd., is pleased to announce the October 1, 2025, launch of its new product, "Zero Carbon HVAC Control System: Cosmo AC Pro (hereafter, "the Product")," as part of the Cosmo Zero Carbon Solution¹ suite of solution-based services designed to help realize a decarbonized society.

Developed through a business alliance with Dodwell B·M·S Ltd., the Product helps reduce both peak power (kW) and total electricity consumption (kWh) by efficiently controlling air conditioning systems such as commercial air conditioners.

The Company understands that reducing total electricity consumption is a top priority for customers pursuing decarbonization and will promote adoption of the Product primarily among corporations. With the launch of the Product, the Company will provide tailored proposals to meet customers' specific decarbonization needs. By adopting the Product together with Cosmo Denki (Electricity) Green, customers can benefit from both the Product's energy-saving effects and the use of renewable energy-derived electricity through Cosmo Denki (Electricity) Green. In addition, the Company will enhance its offerings by introducing other related products, aiming to provide comprehensive decarbonization solutions.

Going forward, the Company will further accelerate the deployment of Cosmo Zero Carbon Solution and contribute to the realization of a sustainable society.
